Under the Direction of the Basilian Fathers

*Lowly bending, deep adoring
Lo! the Sacrament we hail;
Types and shadows have their ending,
Newer rites of grace prevail;
Faith for all defects supplying,
Where the feeble senses fail.*

*To the everlasting Father,
And the Son who reigns on high
With the Holy Spirit proceeding
Forth from both eternally,
Be salvation, honor, blessing,
Might and endless majesty.*

At the microphone on Graduation Day is Gil Bellavance who spoke for himself and the members of the Graduating Class of 1965. A large crowd of parents and friends packed the Auditorium to honor the grads.

Father John Egsgard, C.S.B., Basilian Superior of St. Michael's College School, presents Gil with his diploma. On the stage for the occasion were members of the Graduating Class who serve on the Student Council, Father Neil Smith (Assistant Principal), Father M. Sheedy (Principal), Mr. Ed Brisbois (Principal Speaker), Father Egsgard, and Father A. Butler (Director of Studies).

Jerzy Radziuk with an average of 93.1% at the end of Grade Twelve receives the Old Boys Association Award from its President, Mr. Richard Wakely. This was one of the six awards gained by Jerzy on Graduation Day.

John Szpik was selected by his classmates as the outstanding boy at Saint Michael's in 1964. The Spiritus Award was presented to him at the Graduation Exercises by Colin Brezicki, President of the Student Council for 1964-65.

Father John Ruth presents the Holy Rosary prize to James Lahey who had an average of 92.8%.

Father Whelan congratulates John Visentin who gained twelve Firsts with 87%.

Father Fitzpatrick hands Jim Kavanagh one of his several prizes as leader of Grade Eleven.

Gerald Meehan won the special prize in English. Fr. Smith congratulates this fine student and athlete.

Michael Hyszka receives a Martha Guild prize from Mrs. Brady, President.

Ross Morrison is congratulated by Monsignor Barnett of Perpetual Help Parish. Ross gained an average of 90% in Grade 10.

The King and I

The rehearsals for the King and I started immediately after the auditions were held last October. Mr. John Guerriere, the Musical Director, his assistant Father Vanderzanden and John Arpin rehearse the Chorus.

Father Fitzpatrick, the Producer and Dramatic Director, listens in while Mr. Guerriere helps Bob with a difficult passage.

Once again the TOWER Office was the Box Office for the Annual Musical Production, and for a few days last January it was a very busy spot. Father Whelan, the Box Office Manager, hung out the Sold Out Sign for all performances before the curtain was rung up for the opening performance, the Martha Guild Theatre Party.

One of the highlights of the Show were the dance routines, and particularly the Ballet for the Story of The Little House of Uncle Thomas. Mr. Cliff Collier was the Choreographer and his brilliant direction was beautifully portrayed by the Corps de Ballet throughout the show. The "telling of the story" by Tuptim, the little slave girl, was another highlight . . . and Tuptim was Althea Digregorio.

The Orchestra under the direction of Mr. John Guerriere was an integral part of the production. Mr. John Arpin has been associated with the Show for the past three years. He is one of Toronto's finest musicians.

THE ORCHESTRA

Trumpet: Livio Leonardelli, Alan Jones, Andy Deme

Percussion: Jura Bilaniuk, Andy Dudas

Pianno: John Arpin

Flute: Enzo Deluca, Anthony Delisi

Oboe: Tom Burns

Bass Clarinet: Albert Kerek

The direction of the orchestra was under the baton of our brilliant Director of Music at Saint Michael's College School. He was ably assisted by Mr. John Arpin at the piano. Miss Marlene Spilchen was the Concert Mistress.

Both Acts of The King and I were complete with beautiful scenery and exciting scenes and will be remembered for a long time to come by those who were fortunate enough to see and hear this fine production. The Ballet was one of these exciting moments in the production. The pictures on this page will renew those tingling experiences when "Bud-dha made a miracle". The masks worn by that "wicked old man" who was so excellently acted by Peter Inokai, and by "the hounds on the scent", were designed and built by Attila Hagedus, a Saint Michael's Old Boy.

Aldona Kairys and George (yes, his real name is George) Salamon, who was "like an angel to her" played the principal roles in the "Small House of Uncle Thomas" Ballet.

The "little Mischief Maker" won the hearts of the large audiences when she took her small but important part in the Ballet. This member of the cast was Rose Marie Zammit.

The Death scene of the King of Siam was performed just before the final curtain. So well was it done by the principals concerned that there were few dry eyes in the capacity audiences.

One of the many happy scenes throughout the play was the presentation of the King's Children to Anna, their new school teacher from England. Seen in the picture above are the Kralahome (Joe Pivato), the King (Bob Tatarski), Prince Chululongkorn, the King's oldest son and heir apparent (Pat Howard), and the youngest son who stole more than just one scene, Ronnie Mitchell.

Just in case you missed the "little one" in the picture above, here he is coming back to steal your heart again.

In the story of the King of Siam we are told that he had many wives; and of these some were more favored than others. His number one wife was Lady Thiang played so admirably by Miss Lyn Christopher.

Tuptim! The sweet, lovable slave girl in "The King and I" was played by Althea Digregoria. Who could ever forget those love duets which she sang with Philip Schmidt who played the part of Lun Tha, her lover? She is seen here surrounded by some of the King's children.

All of the principals in the play deserve a large round of applause, but none more than Pat Howard who was excellent as the King's son.

Anna Leonowens, the English Schoolteacher, was played by Dianne Beauvais. As in the Music Man and Molly Brown of other years, she turned in a polished performance. Once again she gained, and indeed did merit, the praise of the critics and the plaudits of the large audiences who saw and heard her in the leading role opposite the male lead, Bob Tatarski as the King of Siam. Their Polka number was "something to behold!"

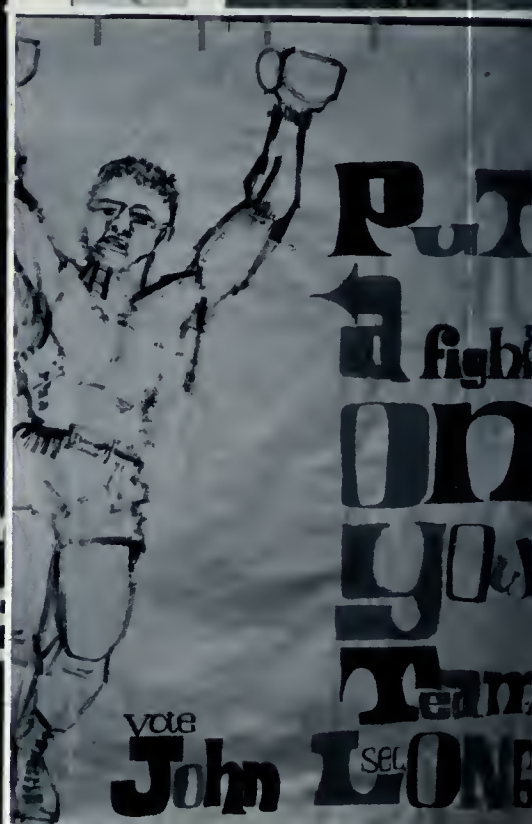

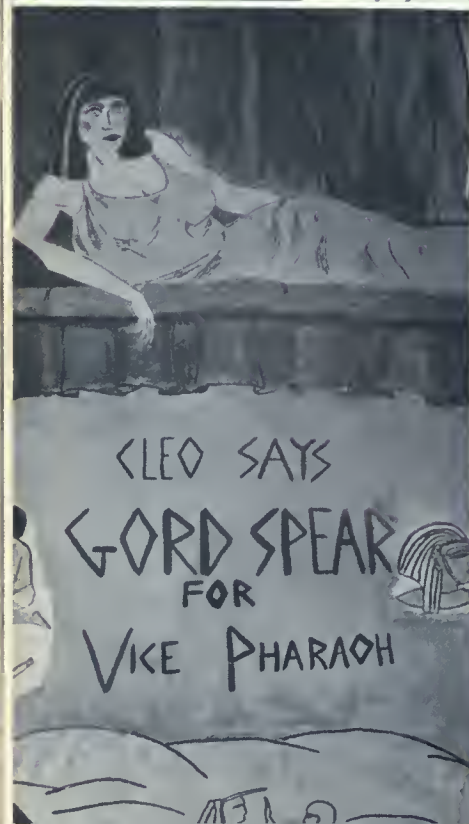

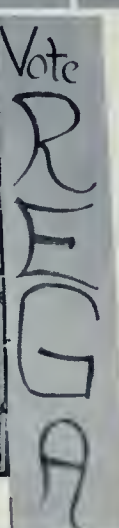

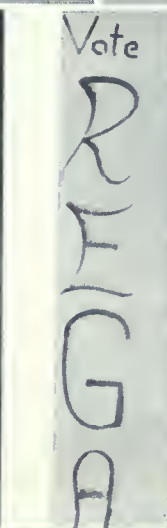

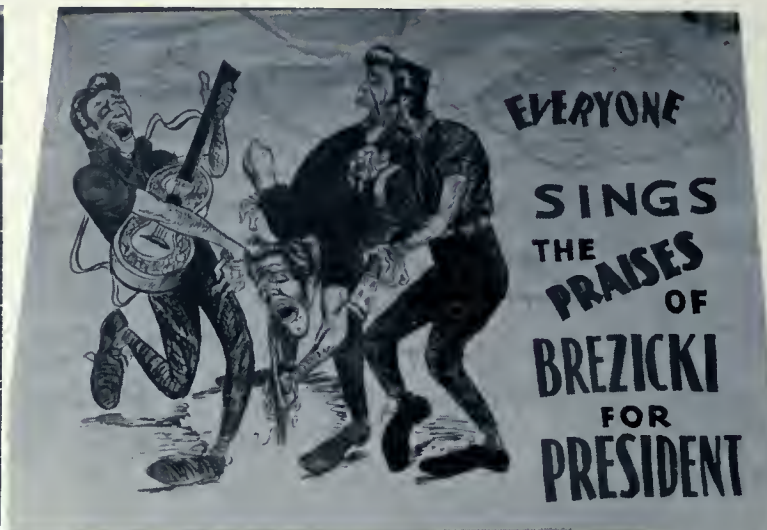

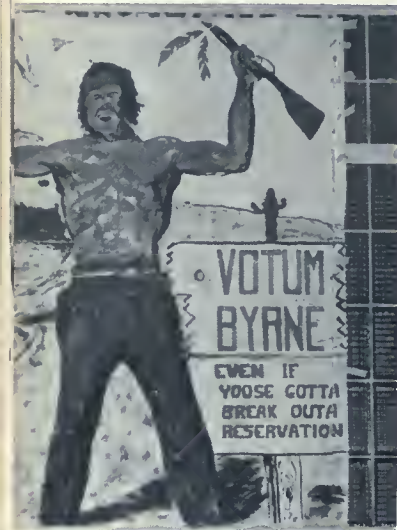

Career Day

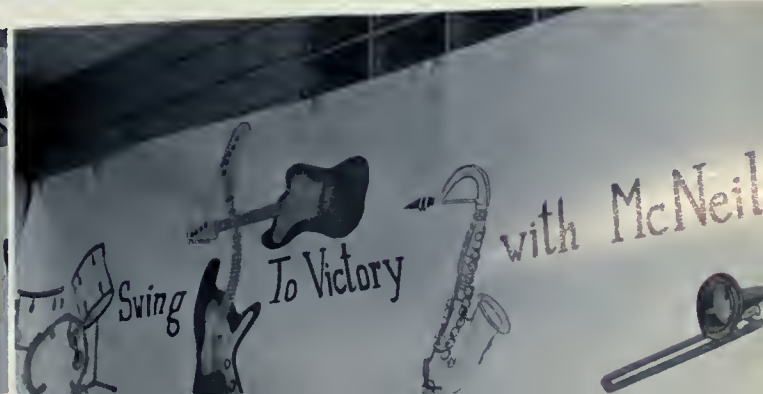

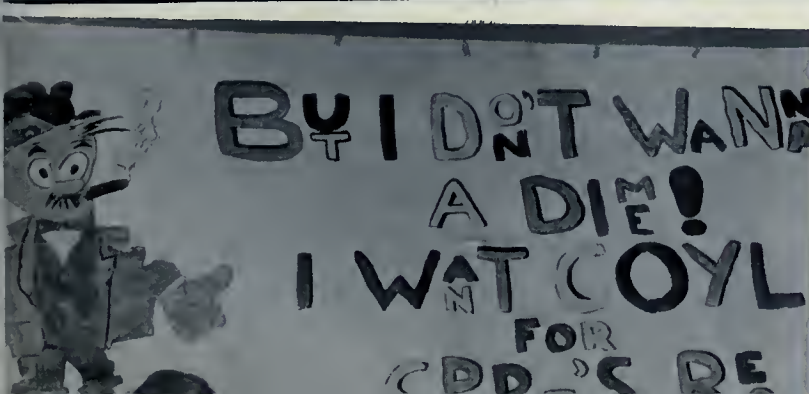

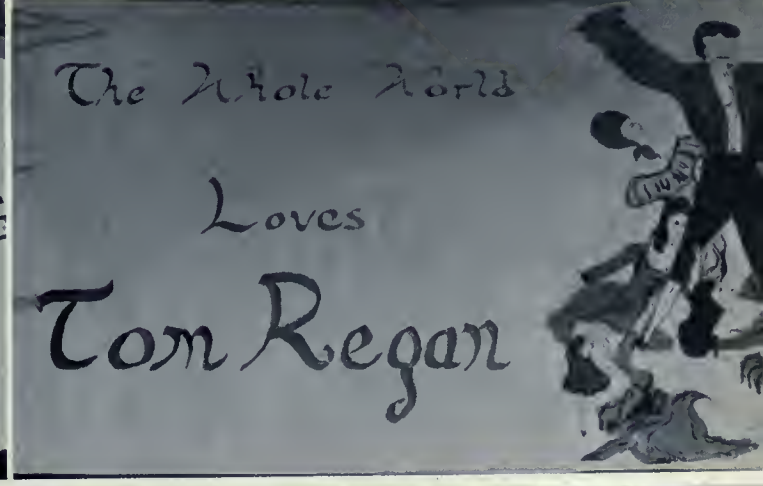

Do you want to talk to an Air Force Officer? an Engineer? A Psychologist? Do you want to talk to any one of them or to all of them, and all within a period of two hours? If you do, then attend Saint Michael's College School Career Day. The personal dimensions of our School guidance programme were further developed on January twenty-ninth when twenty-one speakers gave descriptive accounts of their professions to interested Senior Students at Saint Michael's. Convenor Mr. Russil Morin of the Old Boys' Association brought together the following team of guest experts:

Medicine	Dr. David Ponesse
Physical Sciences	Mr. Valeriotte
Teaching	Mr. Shepard
Priesthood	Father Kelly
Technology	Mr. Sauro
Dentistry	Dr. Holmes

SODALITY

A busy desk . . . in the busy TOWER Office.

Mr. John Maiola has long been associated with Saint Michael's and THE TOWER. This year he is responsible for much of the photography.

Father Maurice Whelan, Faculty Editor and Director of THE TOWER.

The Yearbook at Saint Michael's College School is known to our students and to our many friends as the TOWER. It plays a vital role in the lives of our students on the Campus, and it tells in pictorial form the story of the school year in and around Saint Michael's.

The DOUBLE BLUE BULLETIN is edited and published once a month. It is primarily a literary digest and a news media for Staff and students.

Our gymnasium is used for many and varied extra-curricular activities. Of course, it is the "Home" of the basketball teams representing Saint Michael's. On Graduation Day it becomes an auditorium by day and a Ballroom by night. The Double Blue Ball is held here also. On Student Council Election Day it takes on the aspects of a bazaar where bedlam reigns for a couple or three hours. On occasions it is transformed into an Assembly Hall; or perhaps a dance hall where we hold our "Hops". On this page we present a few pictures which will bring back some happy memories of happy times spent in our "gym".

THE DOUBLE BLUE BALL

John Knowles and His Orchestra filled the auditorium with beautiful music.

One of the largest crowds ever attended the DOUBLE BLUE BALL in January, 1965. Once again the gym and the cafeteria were recreated into a magic funland. It was a happy night for happy people. Bill, Jim, Marty, Miro and Colin had fun even before the Dance got under way. Not much work but lots of fun!

The "Stag Line" — It was a long wait!

Patience finally . . . paid off!

It was a long . . . long . . . long Reception Line.

The girls weren't very hungry that night.

Every step, old and new, was attempted on the Ballroom floor during the evening. Everyone had fun . . . it was a happy time . . . it was the night of The Double Blue Ball!

Rodge, Salamon, Tatarski, Bilaniuk and Company pose for the cameraman during the Intermission in the gaily decorated lounge.

The final decision has been made;
The moment has arrived;
The announcement has been made.
We Hail You! Miss Leona St. John,
Queen of the Double Blue Ball, 1965.

The Italian Club

One of the more active Clubs in the school is the Italian Club which is under the direction of Father Rocco Volpe, C.S.B. It takes its roots from the daily Italian Class which is held every morning at eight-twenty. The Club meets regularly, and after the business meeting a Social is held at which the members participate in games and their national dances. Excursions into the country during the on-and-off seasons are events enjoyed by the members of the Club.

On the trips into the "wide open spaces" the members participate in ball games, swimming, pyramid-building, and eating.

Liz is an eager and enthusiastic member of the Club. Here she advertises the September meeting. All the meetings are held in the beautiful library at Saint Michael's. The meetings begin with prayer and end with . . . pizza!

Dina Galeota had fun on the excursion into the country last Fall. She didn't want to sit down much after those rides on the motor-bike!

On Their Merit

Young men attending the Canadian Services Colleges and Canadian universities under the tri-service Regular Officer Training Plan (ROTP) train for challenging and rewarding careers as officers in Canada's Armed Forces. High school graduates of Senior Matriculation or Junior Matriculation standing qualify for entrance on a competitive basis. These young men are selected and will advance on one basis alone—ON THEIR MERIT.

For information regarding tuition, board, lodging, uniforms, books, instruments, medical and dental care, and salary, consult the Navy, Army or Air Force Recruiting Office in your area, or write to the Director General Officer Cadets, Canadian Forces Headquarters, Ottawa 4, Ont.

HOME OF
Saint Michael's "Buzzers"

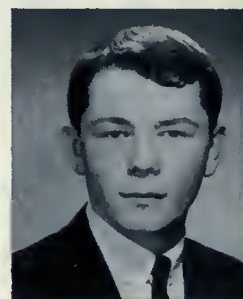

Saint Michael's Arena is a busy place from October till April. It is the "Home" rink for all of the Saint Michael's teams. It is also the scene of the annual debacle between the Staff and Students. This year the Staff routed the Students (again) to the tune of 7-4. The C.Y.O. weekly Skating Party, the Powder Puff Games, The Student Council Skating Jamborees are just a few of the events held in our Arena.

the confidence of our customers is our greatest heritage!

Eaton's of Canada has grown in size and importance on customer-confidence—on the faith the buying public places not only in the selections and values, but in the descriptions found in Eaton Advertisements. One of the first steps in customer-confidence is the realization that what an Eaton ad says about goods and prices can be trusted.

If we should have any doubts concerning claims of quality, the merchandise must be tested and the statements approved by our Research Bureau before the descriptions may be used. More important, perhaps than anything else in establishing customer-confidence in Eaton's advertising is the policy laid down by the founder of the firm—

"Goods Satisfactory or Money Refunded".
